ABSTRACT

The study is about the new edition of Indonesian Dictionary: Kamus Besar Bahasa Indonesia Edisi Baru (KBBIEB), published and written by PT. Media Pustaka Phoenix with Daniel Haryono as the Editor. The results of the study are, first, a lot of words that have been written in KBBI are not written in KBBIEB. Second, KBBIEB does not use standardized codification system, in that it is unclear which ones are considered as good Indonesian words. Third, the inclusion of the meaning of the words is such that could be confusing for the readers. These are the reasons to say that KBBIEB is not an ideal dictionary.

Key words: kamus, KBBIEB, KBBI Codification system.
