

KARAKTERISTIK ORANG JEPANG DALAM BERLALULINTAS

Oleh : Asep Achmad Mublisian

ABSTRACT

Japan and Indonesia have a very clear difference in the character. One of them is in traffic discipline. Japan with a high level of discipline that provides an overview to face the world on how to make good rules and how the rules of society to consciously fulfill it with all my heart for the sake of safety for the safety of themselves and those around him in the traffic. In this study, the author discusses the basic character of traffic rules in Japan which consists of traffic signs, rules for pedestrians, cycling basic rules, rules for motorists, highway regulations and actions in accident. Seeing the review concluded that the regulations are very detailed and really firm should be run by all users of the traffic in Japan gives the conclusion that the character of the Japanese people when traffic passed is: patience in traffic; obedient but seem stiff. As for Traffic rules are: assertive, detail, and pedestrians come first. Besides traffic regulations were made in order to create a safe life and to avoid accidents due to traffic rules basically provide guidelines for all road users to be more careful when doing activities

Key words; Traffic Rules, Japanese Character, Guidelines